Bolshevik ‘Identitarianism’:

Faux-Nationalist Controlled-Opposition Agents
Advancing the New World Order.

Intro (TL;DR version):

G.I. (and related ‘identitarian’ groups) are openly Bolshevik glow-in-the-darks who aim to create a ‘Eurasian’ superstate - a la 1984/Kalergi/Trotsky - for the purpose of advancing the New World Order—superstates are a necessary step towards, and will be synthesized into, the World Government after WWII.

Identitarians also deny White Genocide, deny that jews are behind mass migration, claim that jews are victims of mass migration, decry anti-semitism, decry “White power” (aka White people), support Zionism, support the Holohoax industry and more.

In short, they are agents of the System and, on the most pivotal issues, are indistinguishable from the globalists themselves.

This can all be proven via their own words alone.

Note: If you’re lazy, skip next four pages of textwall to view evidence.

The 'Identitarian' / Bolshevik Connection:

Origin, philosophy, allies:

Generation Identity is a trans-national controlled opposition group, founded under the name 'Génération Identitaire'.

G.I. is part of the "European New Right", or "Identitarian Movement", the philosophical foundations of which were constructed by Eurasianist Bolsheviks, such as Alain de Benoist and Guillaume Faye. Many Identitarian leaders and members have openly praised the Eurasianist, Kabbalist cryptojew, Aleksandr Dugin (founder of the National Bolshevik Party).

Can you think of any other Eurasianists from recent history?

How about the genocidal Bolshevik leader, Lev 'Trotsky' Bronstein. Perhaps the forefather and founder of the European Union, Richard von Coudenhove-Kalergi (who was a puppet of the Rothschilds and other internationalist banking cabals). Even David Ben Gurion, ex-Prime Minister of Israel was a Eurasianist.

Note also the G.I. connections with other System spooks, such as Lauren 'Southern' Simonsen, or Stephen 'Tommy Robinson' Yaxley-Lennon; who deny White Genocide and defend anti-White jews, while promoting various degrees of multi-racialism.

For more information on 'alt-right' or 'identitarian' shills, watch Johnny Gat's videos (available on YouTube or Bitchute).

The purpose of G.I.:

G.I. promotes anti-racism, anti-racialism (biology denial), anti-fascism/anti-national socialism, anti-nationalism, pro-globalism, Eurasianism, White Genocide denial and kosher anti-Islam rhetoric.

G.I. appears to serve six main purposes:

- 1) To obfuscate jewish crimes against Whites, by perpetuating the jewish 'eternal victim' narrative.
- 2) To deny the existence of the genocidal jewish one world government plot, thus White Genocide (hence their absolute aversion to the term 'White Genocide').
- 3) To accelerate the jewish one world government plot by endorsing superstate globalism, a necessary stepping stone which will allow the System to synthesize into a global government (as per 1984).
- 4) To undermine genuine nationalist movements and subsume any would-be nationalists into the ranks of their kosher globalism.
- 5) To accelerate the jewish-constructed "Christianity" (Europeans) vs "Islam" (Africans / Middle Easterners) racial conflict.
- 6) To solidify Bolshevik originated concepts, such as "anti-Semitism", and "racism", thus propagating the farcical "Victim vs Oppressor" narrative used by globalists use to destroy Whites.

Fundamentally, G.I. advances the jewish New World Order while preventing young White men from following the path of Truth.

98% wine and 2% poison is 100% poison.

“But it’s out of context!”

How better to expose a controlled opposition group than by using their own words and their own materials against them?

This document will contain only words straight from the horses’ mouths, with archived links to every source (where possible).

If you think any of this is “out of context”, please read the primary sources. It isn’t any better “in context”.

“Why expose Generation Identity, at least they’re doing something for nationalism!”

All true White men want nothing more than to vanquish the satanic ubercapitalist/ubercommunist System that conquered our lands after the tragedy that was the Second World War.

Bolshevik Eurasianists ensnaring all men brave enough to wish to fight the System is not assisting White men.

“They just want to avoid getting vanned!”

This is transparently not case, take into account their endless philosemitism, Eurasianism, links to Bolshevism, praise for Zionism etc. Additionally, all of the leaders were arrested * anyway, so this proposed “tactical cucking” theory did not assist them in any way. One can address the JQ in Europe without fellating and defending the people currently genociding Whites; “globalists”, “cartels”, etc.

* The leaders were also suspiciously released without charge, despite the fact that White men have been butchered in jail for crimes as small as posting Tweets and handing out flyers.

Harbor in thought:

“In the third rank we shall set up our own, to all appearance, opposition, which, in at least one of its organs, will present what looks like the very antipodes to us. Our real opponents at heart will accept this simulated opposition as their own and will show us their cards.”

- The Protocols of the Elders of Zion

“Where no genuine internal opposition organization exists, a security service might invent one, but to infiltrate the more dangerous organizations abroad in order to blunt or channel their actions, and to surface real or potential internal dissidents. If an internal opposition already exists, it will be infiltrated in an attempt to control it, to provoke opponents into exposing themselves, and to cause the movement to serve state interests”

Bolshevik 'Identitarianism': Benoist

<http://archive.is/zg5eL>

Benoist is also a proponent of the idea of integral federalism, in which the nation state is surpassed, giving way to regional identities and a common continental one at once.^[20] This would be distinct from what he sees as the consumerism and materialism of American society, as well as the bureaucracy and repression of the Soviet Union.^[21]

"ENR", European New Right, of which Generation Identity is part
Denies racialism, "rejects" anti-semitism (aka defends jews, the perpetrators of White genocide)

<http://archive.is/Jr8Pc>

since the 1980s. To echo Alain de Benoist, one of the fathers of the ENR, he who remains silent about capitalism should also remain silent about the problems of immigration.

The ENR was founded in the late 1960s upon a rejection of direct links with interwar fascism. The anti-semitism of the Nazis was rejected, alongside of its bases in biological pseudo-sciences. The old methods of fascism—from paramilitary marches and street violence to direct parliamentary politics—were also forsworn.

<http://archive.is/njXLJ>

Insofar as it is an ideology, Fascism was born of a reorientation of socialism in a direction hostile to materialism and internationalism. Addressing itself to an electorate mostly of the Right, it has often had promoters among men of the Left. Neither racism nor anti-Semitism are consubstantial to it (Zeev Sternhell). In its concrete incarnations, it has been shaped by historical occurrences of the beginning of the 20th century (the First World War, the Soviet Revolution), by the general frame of the epoch (the modernization of the global society), and by the nature of its electorate (essentially of the middle classes, sometimes with a proletarian component).

Bolshevik 'Identitarianism': Benoist

Benoist, philosophical godfather of Generation Identity / European New Right is explicitly anti-racist

<https://www.buzzfeednews.com/article/lasterfeder/the-man-who-gave-white-nationalism-a-new-life>

In this moment of crisis, Venner and de Benoist's Europe-Action called for the West to unite as "the community of white people."

Instead of the kind of nationalism that had led Europeans to fight against one another, de Benoist argued that they should unite around race.

And so he endorsed the kind of racial science that the Nazis used to justify the Holocaust. "Replace natural selection," he recommended, "with a careful communitarian eugenics policy aiming to reduce the flawed elements and the flaws themselves."

De Benoist now disavows this essay and other work from these years, saying he "said a lot of stupid things before" growing disappointed "not only with the radical right, but also with politics."

<https://www.nottingham.ac.uk/cssgj/documents/working-papers/wp022-alain-de-benoists-anti-political-philosophy-beyond-left-and-right-non-emancipatory-responses-to-globalisation-and-crisis.pdf> <https://bit.ly/2xYiOXs>

De Benoist is not representative of the kind of neo-Nazi activities and perspectives that sometimes come to the fore within Golden Dawn or similar European neo-fascist outfits.

He is clearly an opponent of antisemitism and sees his 'right to difference' philosophy as anti-racist and anti-nationalist. Yet, de Benoist's redefinition of racism, ethno-pluralism, anti-

Bolshevik 'Identitarianism': Faye

<http://archive.is/McRuk>

Faye has been criticized for his "extremism" by Alain de Benoist in a March 2000 interview published in the Italian review Area, close to the Alleanza Nazionale.^[2]

In 2007, he published La Nouvelle question juive (The New Jewish question) in which he strongly criticized Holocaust deniers and many Third Positionists and anti-Zionists (such as Alain Soral or Christian Bouchet) whom he accuses of sympathy for Islamism. As a response, he was accused of being a "national-Zionist".

GUILLAUME FAYE IN HIS OWN WORDS

"How could I be anti-Zionist Unlike Islamism, Communism, Leftism, human rights, and masochistic, post-conciliar Christianity, Zionism neither opposes nor restrains in any significant way the ideals I defend, that is, the preservation of [Europe's biocultural] identity. How would the disappearance of Israel serve my cause? For a European identitarian to think that the Hebrew state is an enemy is geopolitically stupid."

<http://archive.is/GqHv>

"I've always felt distant and hostile toward the revisionists (or Holocaust-deniers, whichever term one prefers). While Europe is being subjected to a Third-World and Islamic inundation, this issue has always seemed to me to be a typical example of a phony problem, a strategy of avoidance — of taking shelter in the past. Out of a kind of cowardice or fear they deliberately mistake the enemy. Not to mention how revisionists very often look with tender glances at their Moslem and Arab masters. [...] Revisionism is the typical example of masturbating with history in order to forget the present and future ..."

<http://archive.is/1ixJ>

Bolshevik 'Identitarianism': Faye

"Anti-Judaism (a term preferable to anti-Semitism) has melted away like snow in the sun. There are, of course, pockets of resistance . . . But this tendency is more and more isolated . . . because of the massive problem posed by Islamization and Third World immigration. In these circumstances, anti-Judaism has been forgotten, for the Jew no longer appears as a menace. In the milieu I frequent, I never read or hear of anti Jewish invectives. . . . [A]nti-Judaism is a political position that is obsolete, unhelpful, out of date, even when camouflaged as anti-Zionism. This is no longer the era of the Dreyfus Affair. Anti-Jews, moreover, are caught in an inescapable contradiction: they despise Jews, but claim they dominate the world, as if they were a superior race. This makes anti-Judaism a form of political schizophrenia, a sort of inverted philosemitism, an expression of resentment. One can't, after all, detest what one aspires to My position is that of Nietzsche: To run down the Jews serves no purpose, it's politically stupid and unproductive."

<http://archive.is/6qHtv>

"I've always wondered if the revisionists actually believe what they're saying, and whether they're aware that taking the position of calling the Shoah into question necessitates, in order to be credible, a simultaneous unequivocal condemnation of the Third Reich's ideology and declared aims."

<http://archive.is/1AixJ>

"Clearly, one could reason as follows: given that Jews are very influential in the media, it would be in the nationalists' interest to enter into an alliance with them to oppose Islamization and immigration, in exchange for eliminating all anti-Jewish odor and all support for Holocaust revisionists. I know that several contacts have been made along these lines at the highest levels of certain nationalist and racial-nationalist movements but these negotiations didn't produce any significant results."

Dear members of donmeh-INTERNET,

I am very glad to receive the first answers to my questions and I am waiting with great joy for the possible remarks from other enlightened persons.

I occupied myself with the great themes of Tradition for many years. I have written some books on the sacral geography, metaphysics of Orthodox Church, geopolitics and so on. Besides Rene Guenon I was also reading the precious books of Gershom Scholem, whom I consider to be the greatest traditionalist thinker. I am happy that I can develop some of the considerations on Qabbalah tradition that I have collected through the years.

I suppose that the main problem in correct analysis of Tradition, esoterism and so on is the individuation of two general approaches -- manifestationist and creationist. All the rest is based on this division. If we manage to identify correctly these approaches in traditionalist doctrines we would grasp the essential.

In my book "The metaphysics of the Good Message" I have developed the thesis that correct understanding of Christian doctrine in its metaphysical level is possible only through confronting the creationist and manifestationist motives in early Church fathers writings. Manifestationism is Hellenic (platonic), creationism is properly Judaic. The Christian Church makes very particular superposition of both, refusing Hellenic and Judaic approaches taken separately.

Next step. In his writings Guenon affirms implicitly that manifestationist approach is related to esoterism, creationist approach to exoterism and religion as very particular western form of Tradition originated in abrahamic and semitic sources.

With all this we are dealing in study of Isaak Luria's Qabbalah, sabbataism, hassidism, masonic and occult movements.

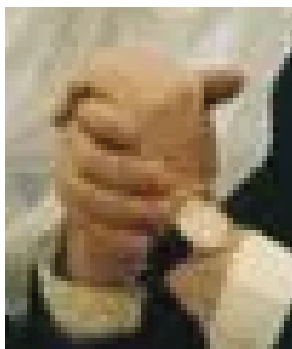

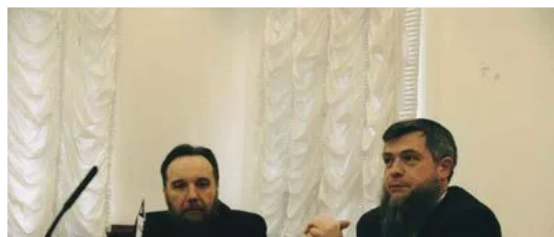

I propose such a model. The exoteric judaism, rabbinic version is pure form of creationist approach up to extreme rationalist consequences, up to Maimonid position that could be regarded as early sign of modern world rationalist-positivist conception of reality. Creationism leads to entire desacralisation of world, because it is based on the supposition of absence of any possibility to creature to become the God. It is the sine qua non of strict monotheism.

Coudenhove-Kalergi is recognized as the founder of the first popular movement for a united Europe.

According to his autobiography, at the beginning of 1924 his friend Baron Louis de Rothschild introduced him to Max Warburg who offered to finance his movement for the next three years by giving him 60,000 gold marks. Warburg remained sincerely interested in the movement for the remainder of his life and served as an intermediate for Coudenhove-Kalergi with influential Americans such as banker Paul Warburg and financier Bernard Baruch. In April 1924, Coudenhove-Kalergi founded the journal Paneuropa (1924–1938) of which he was editor and principal author. The next year he started publishing his main work, the Kampf um Paneuropa (The fight for Paneuropa, 1925–1928, three volumes). In 1926, the first Congress of the Pan-European Union was held in Vienna and the 2,000 delegates elected Coudenhove-Kalergi as president of the Central Council, a position he held until his death in 1972.

His original vision was for a world divided into only five states: a United States of Europe that would link

In his book Praktischer Idealismus (Practical Idealism), written in 1925, he describes the future of Jews in Europe and of European racial composition with the following words:^[45]

The man of the future will be of mixed race. Today's races and classes will gradually disappear owing to the vanishing of space, time, and prejudice. The Eurasian-Negroid race of the future, similar in its appearance to the Ancient Egyptians, will replace the diversity of peoples with a diversity of individuals. [...]

Eurasianism (Russian: Евразийство, Yevraziystvo) is a political movement in Russia, formerly within the primarily Russian émigré community,^[citation needed] that posits that Russian civilisation does not belong in the "European" or "Asian" categories but instead to the geopolitical concept of Eurasia. Originally developing in the 1920s, the movement was supportive of the Bolshevik Revolution but not its stated goals of enacting communism, seeing the Soviet Union as a stepping stone on the path to creating a new national identity that would reflect the unique character of Russia's geopolitical position. The movement saw a minor resurgence after the collapse of the Soviet Union at the end of the 20th century, and is mirrored by Turanism in Turkic and Uralic nations.

Bolshevik 'Identitarianism': Eurasianism

" With the exception of the USSR as a federated Eurasian state, all other continents will become united in a world alliance [i.e. 'New World Order'], at whose disposal will be an international police force; armies will be abolished and there will be no more wars. In Jerusalem, the United Nations will build a shrine of the Prophets to serve the federated union of all continents; this will be the seat of the Supreme Court of Mankind, to settle all controversies among the federated continents, as prophesied by Isaiah."

GUIDELINES ON GENERATION IDENTITY

1. GI is no old-right wing movement. If you're a part of any kind of national socialist/fascist/chauvinist group or have such ideas, please leave.
2. We stay out of any conflict outside of Europe. Members will not be permitted to use this movement to push pro/anti-Palestine or pro/anti-Israel views.
3. We don't make any chauvinist remarks about other religions/ethnicities/races – not even for fun. We strive to be the avant-garde of this generation – behave like such or leave.

Identitarians reject some of the core beliefs embraced by older far-right groups, Timm told me, such as anti-Semitism. If someone trying to join his group expressed anti-Jewish ideas, or denied the Holocaust, he said that person would not be welcome.

(((generation identity))) on national socialism

We reject its ideology and hostility to the freedom and the diversity of peoples, just as we reject your ideology.

What does the Second World War mean for us? We've learned from its story that we Europeans shouldn't fight one another over petty disagreements. You have also taught us that we Europeans shouldn't hate ourselves for petty reasons.

We don't damn and demonise. We learn. You've failed to learn from the 'Third Reich,' and have become just as extremist as the National Socialists. Unlike you, we can justly and rightly claim to have overcome National Socialism. We toss both it and your sick ideas where they belong, into the rubbish bin of history.

For we are generation identity.

Generation Identity: Far-right group sending UK recruits to military-style training camps in Europe

Ms McKenna claimed that "Islamisation" was under way in Britain and Ireland, adding:

"Islam isn't a religion in my opinion, it's more of a political force."

Asked about the volume of racist and antisemitic responses from supporters replying to the group's online posts, the 38-year-old said anyone who "tries to bring up the Jewish question" is prevented from formally joining GI.

We're certainly not 'anti-Jewish.' We don't have a formal position on external states (or conflicts). We believe our priorities should be European and European alone.

'Where there is no folk but only a collection of individual social atoms, there can be no democracy.' - Alain de Benoist #TuesdayThoughts

10. Democracy means the power of the people, which is to say the power of an organic community that has historically developed in the context of one or more given political structures—for instance a city, nation, or empire. Where there is no folk but only a collection of individual social atoms, there can be no democracy. Every political system which requires the disintegration or levelling of peoples in order to operate—or the erosion of individuals' awareness of belonging to an organic folk community—is to be regarded as undemocratic.

We don't adhere to fascist doctrines, whilst democracy has given us trouble over the years it's still the best of a bad bunch. They also tend to work much better when a high percentage of the population is homogeneous.

Bolshevik 'Identitarianism': Generation Identity

Excerpt from an article on their positions from the German Identitarian blog. The article is titled "Weder Kippa noch Palituch", which translates to "Neither Kippah nor Palestinian keffiyeh".

our history and our reference to it in the present. Our story can not be changed, the reference to it already. We distance ourselves clearly from National Socialism and its exterminatorial anti-Semitism, but also from a cultic policy of guilt and a neurotic self-hatred with which no one is served.

What we learn from recent German history is that the combination of nationalism with a racial superiority claim that the division of peoples and cultures into "good and bad", "superior and inferior", that political doctrines of salvation can have dire consequences. We do not deny all the crimes that have arisen in the name of this ideology in their comparable and unique aspects and strictly reject revisionist evasions. We, the coming generation, want a real work-up that ends in a genuine, lasting reconciliation. However, we also reject the quasi-religious institutionalization and abuse of this disaster and an absolutely one-sided view of German history. The Holocaust is a crime for us, which should not be repeated, but not a founding myth and not the center of German history. In the course of a real work-up, we want to find back to a healthy, self-confident identity, from which only an equally healthy relationship with the Jewish people can spring. The identity idea is the overdue and open response to the Shoah and National Socialism, rather than being merely a reflection in a cultural self-hatred "eternal perpetrator" and moral agency of the earth.

As true ethnopluralists, we recognize the right to life of all peoples and see them as part of the family of a common planet. Our enemies are only those who threaten our identity, not imaginary axes of evil or world conspiracies.

We reject any anti-Semitism without turning into a pathological over-identification with Israel. It is only understandable that Israel and parts of US politics have a strategic interest in not creating an Islamic caliphate in Europe. But we have an identitarian, existential interest in it. We do not want to become an unselfish chess piece in a transatlantic, Western alliance, but to act self-confidently and independently as Germany and Europe. Our problems with galloping Islamization are not directly related to US policy in the Middle East and both must be considered and discussed separately.

@Vernaculis muh white genocide tho.

FYI:

She still denies White Genocide, despite the fact she went to South Africa to make a documentary about White Genocide. The documentary itself flat out denies the existence of White Genocide, towards the end.

"As far as I'm concerned, Hitler was just a SJW who happened to get freaky amounts of power and actually implement his #KillAllJews (the predecessor to #KillAllMen) worldview. Basically, if Hitler were writing today, he could've avoided all the verbiage in Mein Kampf and just complained about "Jew-splaining" on Tumblr and the message would be the same.

Oh, and another problem I have with Hitler? He fawned over Muslims more sycophantically than Justin Trudeau. Bibi Netanyahu was right to point out that Hitler decided on the Holocaust partly because Middle Eastern Muslims told him they didn't want Jews expelled into the region."

AltRight Press Conference best of quotes:

"[Racemixing] is not really a threat to White Identity, to be honest, simply because of numbers. In terms of intermarriage between Asians and Whites or something, it's not something significant that we really have to deal with. It's not like half of the country is East-Asian and the other half is White and we're all mixing - that is simply not happening on that scale, so it's simply not an important question. I don't feel like intermarriage is really threatening White Identity."

-Dickie Spencer

"The Jewish people as a whole will be its own Messiah. It will attain world dominion by the dissolution of other races, by the abolition of frontiers, by the annihilation of monarchy, and by the establishment of a world republic in which the Jews will everywhere exercise the privilege of citizenship. In this new world order the Children of Israel will furnish all the leaders without encountering opposition. The Governments of the different peoples forming the world republic will fall without difficulty into the hands of the Jews. It will then be possible for the Jewish rulers to abolish private property, and everywhere to make use of the resources of the state. Thus will the promise of the Talmud be fulfilled, in which it is said that when the Messianic time is come, the Jews will have all the property of the whole world in their hands."

then they are most definitely shills.

If you deny that these lowlife NWO puppets are shills, despite all of the evidence listed in this document, then re-read all of the information, check the source links, follow the trail yourself.

It doesn't matter whether the pleb-tier 'identitarian' followers are shills themselves or not, those steering this ship are intentionally piloting it directly into the whirlpool of the New World Order and the jewish One World Government.

"Be radical, have principles, be absolute, be that which the bourgeoisie calls an extremist: give yourself without counting or calculating, don't accept what they call 'the reality of life' and act in such a way that you won't be accepted by that kind of 'life', never abandon the principle of struggle."
